

IN REBUTTAL

MRS. GOULD PRODUCES WITNESSES TO PROVE

That in Long Association They Never Saw Her Tanked Up.

HER CONDUCT WAS ALWAYS GOOD

Says the Plumber, the Auto Broker and Army Officer's Wife.

Both Sides Are Chasing Bushes to Obtain More Evidence.

New York, June 21.—Mrs. Katharine Clemens-Gould, who is suing her husband for a separation and $250,000 alimony, said today that she had several witnesses for her side, and had obtained evidence to refute the evidence of the employees of the Hotel Bellevue-Stratford, who testified that they saw Dustin Farnum, the actor, leave her apartments early one morning during her stay at the Philadelphia hotel in 1906.

Mrs. Gould's lawyer today decided to say what the rebuttal evidence was, but said it would all be introduced at the trial at the proper time and that when Mrs. Gould's case was presented in rebuttal they would be some surprises.

The first deposition taken up by Mr. Shearn was that of Mrs. Alice O. Bankhead, of Atlanta, Ga., wife of Lieutenant Henry McCauley, Bankhead, of Fort McPherson, Ga., who visited Mrs. Gould.

Mrs. Bankhead related in her deposition the incidents of a visit with Mrs. Gould, as the latter's guest, in Cairo, Egypt, in 1902, when the party visited the Khedive's palace. Witness described Mrs. Gould's conduct on that occasion as "lady like and above reproach."

Mrs. Bankhead accompanied the Goulds to Alexandria. Mrs. Gould's conduct was "perfect and beyond criticism," on that trip according to Mrs. Bankhead. Mrs. Gould was never intoxicated during this time.

Mr. Shearn next read the deposition of Lieut. Bankhead. The lieutenant said that he had never seen any action that was other than lady like of Mrs. Gould.

Louie O. Farnum, superintendent of a cleaning and ventilating firm of this city, who said he had been at Castle Gould frequently during the four years from May, 1901, to December, 1905, engaged in installing a heating and ventilating plant, was the first witness called by the plaintiff. He testified that the had met Mrs. Gould quite often, as she would give him instructions about the work at Castle Gould and never saw her intoxicated or heard her use strong language to the servants or employees.

William McHafey, an automobile broker, who said he had charge of the private garage at Castle Gould from September, 1900, to April, 1902, testified that he never heard her curse or swear at any of the employees and never saw her when she showed any signs of being under the influence of liquor, he said.

Michael J. Duffey, who said he was superintendent of buildings at Castle Gould from August, 1902, to May, 1904, and met Mrs. Gould almost daily in his work, testified that he never had seen her under the influence of liquor nor heard her use abusive language to any one. Duffey testified after questions from Mr. Nicol that he had been discharged by Mr. Gould.

When informed of this fact the police said Mrs. Tracey declared that she did not poison her husband, but that the murder had been planned by Brown. Brown admits having gotten the poison through his brother at Lancaster but says he gave it to Mrs. Tracey to kill her.

Washington, June 21.—A joint commission, consisting of three senators and five representatives to visit Porto Rico during the summer recess is provided for in a joint resolution introduced by Representative Austin of Tennessee. The resolution directs the commission to report at the next regular session of congress as to what changes should be made in the insular act, the organic law of the island.

WIFE CONFESSES TO GIVING POISON

York, Pa., June 21.—Mrs. Joshua Tracey, who was arrested on Saturday on suspicion of having poisoned her husband last Monday, made a partial confession today, according to the police. She says Wm. Brown, also in jail here as a suspect, planned the murder and administered strychnine in a drink of whisky. Detectives White today returned from Lancaster, Pa., where he returned a report that Brown had secured strychnine from a drug store in that city through the instrumentality of his brother.

When informed of this fact the police said Mrs. Tracey declared that she did not poison her husband, but that the murder had been planned by Brown. Brown admits having gotten the poison through his brother at Lancaster but says he gave it to Mrs. Tracey to kill her.

PROTRACTED TRIAL

MAJORITY ASKED FOR AN ACQUITTAL

Use Occupied Attention of the Court for Five Weeks.

San Francisco, Cal., June 21.—The protracted trial for bribery of President Patrick Calhoun, of the United Railways, ended at noon yesterday with a hung jury. Ten of the talesmen were determined on acquittal and two were as obstinate for conviction.

Five months and a week had transpired since the wealthy street car magnate, a descendant of Patrick Henry, made his first appearance in court in answer to the charge of offering a bribe of $4,000 to a Supervisor to obtain a privilege for his corporation. Not until each juror had pronounced as hopeless the prospect of a verdict was the order for their liberation made by Judge Lawler, prosecution and defense giving assent to the discharge.

The trial ended quietly and without demonstration. The defendant and his attorneys, as well as the chief officers of the prosecution, refrained from comment upon the disagreement when it was recorded, and quickly departed from the Courtroom. Five ballots were taken, three of these shortly after the jury retired. Upon the first vote the jury stood eight for acquittal and four for conviction. Two of the four joined the majority upon the second ballot and one of the remaining two announced his determination to remain out a month if necessary.

Pickens, counseled him to get out of the race, but the intrepid Swiss-Italian insisted on staying in as long as his car would budge, and today he takes home the Cobe cup, which was presented to him on the court house steps at five o'clock.

SOME FELLOW SAID DUTY ON HIDES WAS PUT

In the Dingley Bill by Some One of Midnight Sessions

WHICH CAUSED SENATOR FROM

Wyoming to Say Senate Had Been Injured and Insulted.

Corporation Tax Measure Handed Over to Mr. Wickersham.

Washington, June 21.—Continuing his advocacy of a tariff in hides, when the tariff bill was taken up at the beginning of today's session of the senate, Senator Warren of Wyoming, declared that the senate had been "injured and insulted" by the man who in seeking free hides had declared that the duty on hides had been put in the Dingley bill by "some midnight" convention.

Washington, June 21.—Following his conference of last night with the Republican members of the Senate Finance Committee and Senator Root, of New York, President Taft today was in consultation with Attorney General Wickersham upon the subject of the proposed tax upon the net earnings of corporations. Mr. Wickersham has been given the task framing a satisfactory amendment to the tariff bill embodying the corporation tax idea. Both he and the president find themselves confronted by rapidly multiplying problems involved in the proposed tax. It is realized that any legislation affecting corporations is difficult, but the proposition to levy a tax on net earnings carrying with it the right of the government to open the books of the various corporations, presents difficulties that will test the best genius of those who have anything to do with it. The attorney general gave no hint today as to when he would have the draft of the law ready for the Senate Finance Committee to introduce.

South Bend, Ind., June 21.—Ten persons were killed and 40 injured in the wreck of a Chicago, Lake Shore and South Bend Railroad passenger train Saturday night, when two of the big electric cars collided head-on.

According to General Manager H. I. Wallace, of Michigan City, the wreck occurred because of a disregarding of orders by Motorman Reed, in the east-bound car, who received instructions at Gary to wait at Watson, a short distance west of Baileytown, the point at which the disaster occurred, for the west-bound car to pass.

The east-bound car, running as Train No. 59, was running at a speed of 30 miles an hour to make up lost time, and when the crash occurred the east-bound car was telescoped and almost entirely wrecked.

In this train were all of the killed and most of the injured, the passengers on Train No. 58, west-bound, escaping with but slight bruises and scratches.

The two cars were welded together into a mass of wreckage, in which lay the ten dead and dying and the two score of injured. The cries and appeals for help which came from the debris was horrible, and caused a scene of utter confusion.

Farmhouse a Hospital.
The home of E. R. Boer, near by, was turned into a temporary hospital and morgue by parties rescuing the dead and injured from the cars. The darkness greatly interfered with the progress of the work, and the nearest telephone was three quarters of a mile from the scene of the wreck, making it impossible to secure speedy aid from Michigan City.

All but one of the killed were in the smoking compartment of the car, in the front end. This space, originally used as a baggage and freight room, was fitted up for the use of the smokers and was crowded.

South Bend, Ind., June 21.—All of the injured in the wreck on the South Shore Railroad Saturday night are doing well. The coroner will begin the inquest at two o'clock today.

E. Moore, killed in the wreck, was from Hillsdale, Mich. He was the father of A. Moore, who was injured.

FOR NON-SUPPORT G. M. Pierce Was Arraigned Saturday.

Humane Officer Smiley arrested G. M. Pierce, at Waldo, Marion county, on the charge of non-support of his three year old son. He was arraigned before Squire Dempster and entered a plea of guilty. The court assessed a fine and $10 and sentenced him to 60 days in the work house. The sentence was suspended upon condition that he provide for the child, which he agreed to do.

PERIL TURNED INTO FORTUNE.

A friend of mine told me of a curious experience. He was carefully stalking a big bull elephant in a large herd, when they got his wind, and a big cow elephant charged him. He jumped behind a large tree as the elephant reached him, and being unable to stop herself in time, the elephant drove her tusks with such force into the trunk of the tree that they snapped off close to her head. The elephant was stunned for a moment, but luckily turned and galloped after the fast-retreating herd, leaving him the possessor of some eighty pounds of ivory, valued at about $250.—Circus Magazine.

S.S.S. CURES OLD SORES

If an old sore existed simply because the flesh was diseased at that particular spot, it would be an easy matter to apply some remedy directly to the place that would kill the germs; or the diseased flesh might be removed by a surgical operation and a cure effected. But the very fact that old sores resist every form of local or external treatment, and even return after being cut away, shows that back of them is a morbid cause which must be removed before a cure can result. Just as long as the pollution continues in the blood, the ulcer remains an open cesspool for the deposit of impurities which the circulation throws off. S.S.S. cures Old Sores by purifying the blood. It removes every trace of impurity and taint from the circulation and thus completely does away with the cause. When S.S.S. has cleansed the blood, the sore begins to heal, and it is not a surface cure, but the healing process begins at the bottom; soon the discharge ceases, the inflammation leaves, and the place fills in with firm, healthy flesh. Under the purifying and tonic effects of S.S.S. the system is built up, and those whose health has been impaired by the drain and worry of an old sore will be doubly benefited by its use. Record Achievement.
A record achievement in the movement of a heavy freight train has been accomplished on the Pennsylvania railroad, between Altoona and Enola, near Harrisburg, Pa. To determine what could be done in actual road service, as the result of some of the company's recent expenditures for improvements, 25 steel gondola cars loaded with a total of 4,451 tons of coal were on Monday, June 18th, attached to locomotive No. 1113, a freight engine of the most improved type.

The total weight of the train was 6,151 tons, and its length from the pilot of the locomotive to the rear platform of the cabin car was 3,090 feet—nearly three-fourths of a mile. The run of approximately 124 miles was made in 7 hours and 15 minutes, the average speed of the train being about 17 miles per hour.

The company has made a number of road tests previously, but the performance of the 14th surpassed all others. The heaviest trains moved between Altoona and Enola, prior to this record run, were all handled during the month of June, the results being as follows:

Number	Weight	Total	Time
of cars	of train
75 steel, 5,397 tons,		10 hrs.	21 min.
75 steel, 5,348 tons,		8 hrs.	2 min.

These runs were made possible by the fact that the company has now reduced all grades and compensated all curves on the "Middle Division" of its main line between New York and Pittsburgh, less than 17 feet to the mile. The last step in this scheme of improvement was taken lately in the opening to service of the four tracks involving radical revision of grade and removal of curvature for the 11 miles between Mt. Union and Ryde.

Formerly, it was necessary to have a "pusher," or extra locomotive, help long freight trains over the heavy grades. Now, it is possible for single locomotives unaided to accomplish these record results.

Steel Cross Ties.
Horace D. Phillips, forman for the Lake Shore railroad at Nottingham, has patented a steel cross tie which he expects will work a revolution in railroad building.

The new tie is of hollow steel, and has an arrangement whereby the tracks can be securely fastened to it. Larger rails can be adjusted at any time. The tie, being hollow, allows ballast to pack firmly beneath it.

Phillips believes the device can be manufactured for $1.75, and that it will last 25 years. Wooden ties cost 95 cents and last about five years. The steel tie is insulated so it can be used where electric block signals are in service.

To Enlarge Yards.
Sandusky, June 21.—The Pennsylvania is buying a large tract of land in Margaretta township, this county, for the purpose, it is understood, of enlarging its local yards. The yards are frequently in the most deplorable condition because of the necessity of holding consignments of coal on side tracks.

The price paid for the land averages about $200 per acre. Four deeds have been filed in the office of Recorder Hartman.

New Bridge Completed.
Gallipolis, O., June 21.—The Toledo and Ohio Central and the Kana-wha and Michigan Railways part of the Morgan syndicate, today completed their new bridge across the Ohio river four miles east of here, and have switched to the new track at Wagner which is above the flood line.

Master Car Builders.
Atlantic City, N.J., June 21.—The opening session here today of the 43rd annual convention of the Master Car Builders association was addressed by an address by R. F. McKenna, of Scranton, Pa., president of the association, who arraigned "unfair legislation" and "unfair criticism" of honest business enterprises. He said that the public would suffer until certain federal and state laws were repealed.

A COSTLY BLUNDER IN STREET PAVING.

It is a truthful saying that experience is a good but costly teacher. This is illustrated a gain by the city of Baltimore in the matter of wooden pavements. In 1904 the city council passed an ordinance appropriating money from the Western Maryland railroad fund to pave streets around and near the court house with wooden blocks. This ordinance was passed over the protest of the city engineer, Mr. Fendall, who pointed out the large cost of this kind of pavement and that it would be too slippery on the grades. But this protest from a professional man was ignored, and Monument Square, the court house place, Fayette street from Calvert to St. Paul and St. Paul and Calvert streets from Fayette to Baltimore—five blocks in all, including the wide squares at each end of the court house—were paved with wood at a cost of $35,000. Before the completion of the work it was apparent that the council had blundered. In rainy and frosty weather horses floundered and fell upon it in the most distressing manner. Then the Street Cleaning Department undertook to remedy the trouble by sprinkling ashes on the pavement whenever it became slippery. This remedy, in sprinkling ashes and removing them when the occasion passed, it was found, costs the city $1,760 a year. So, upon the whole, the experiment has been a costly one, and it is to be presumed that the blunder will not be repeated. The wooden blocks must now be removed and some other pavement substituted. What substitute will be employed has not yet been determined, but the utmost care should be exercised to avoid another blunder. Surrounding the court house it is essential to have a pavement so smooth that the proceedings of the court will not be interrupted by the noise of passing vehicles, and at the same time not so smooth that horses cannot stand upon it. The difficulty is increased by the fact that upon each of the streets now paved with wooden blocks there is a sharp grade, and in hauling a load up a grade the horses must be able to get a foothold. The block on the north side of the court has a very steep grade, and that block is paved with bricks. This pavement has not been found to be desirable, and it is said that it will also be removed, but not as soon as the wooden blocks—Baltimore Sun.

DISCREET.

"May I—may I kiss you, dear?"
Said he.
"First I want one thing made clear,"
Said she.
"Have you ever kissed maid before, or tried?"
"No," he answered—she was sure he lied.
Then, with wilting lips, she whispered, "Well,
Yes, you may, since you don't kiss and tell."

THE TENOR AND THE TONSILS.

There is news that, so far as mortal physicians can see, the voice of Caruso is saved. In all the great capitals where grand opera is sung this is a local item of joyful importance. Behind the tidings is a story of tonsils and the surgeon which has been told many times for patients of less distinction than the Metropolitan's first tenor.

In some respects the tonsils, whether or not they be those of a great singer are mysteries. They exist. They can call attention to themselves as effectively as can any verminous appendix, given sufficient provocation. And like that other organ they have no present essential use which doctors can find. One part with them readily and, if the surgeon be skillful, with a pronounced minimum of peril.

In giving up his tonsils Signor Caruso makes a small sacrifice. Accounts relative to the tenor tones which he may get back have been stated in terms of many dollars, together with world fame. A transaction is promised here in striking illustration of how to get a great deal of something for nothing—if one may for purely rhetorical purposes neglect the surgeon's fee.—New York World.

FOUNDED PARAGRAPHS.

A man isn't necessarily hot-headed because he craves a stopping place. If we all had our own way, other people would quickly get out of it. Mirror backs in show windows are one kind of advertisement is to attract women. Even a man of sand should have enough sense to build his house upon rock. Everybody wants something for nothing, but few people are satisfied with what they get that way. And it sometimes happens that after a man has made his mark he acquires a wife who makes him toe it. Many a man's boasted bravery has gone lame when his wife suggested that he visit the kitchen and fire the cook. Many a woman says her prayers because the minister says she should, and does other things because he says she shouldn't.—Chicago News.

THE RETAIL MERCHANT.

Speaking more particularly of the retail merchant in the smaller towns, the Delphi, Ind., Journal preaches a little sermon which in a sense applies to the retail merchant in even the larger cities, as follows:

"Did you ever stop to think that the business man is the most abused fellow in creation? Every scheme for public improvement, legitimate or illegitimate, must be financed by him. He is held up for donations for the private and public enterprises. His time is monopolized by salesmen, beggars, kickers and loafers, and yet, through it all he keeps a smiling face to welcome each customer. The man who makes money in a retail business is entitled to it."

Of course the man who makes money in any other business is entitled to it, for there are annoyances attendant upon all businesses. But it is the truth that the retail merchant more than any other, is harassed by more different kinds of schemers than is any other man. He is legitimate prey for every solicitor for every cause, as the Journal says, and the worst of it is he may not hide behind doors as other business men are able at times to do.

Then everybody supposes that all retail merchants are getting rich. Just how the idea ever came to prevail, with the record of failures so easily obtainable, we do not know. But it seems to be a fact that as soon as a man embarks in the retail business everybody supposes he has money to bestow upon anything that comes along. Of course if one would take the trouble to sit down and read the records he would find that only one retail merchant out of every fifty succeeds, and that the other forty-nine go to the wall, but people do not sit down and read records in any great extent.

Probably one of the greatest annoyances with which the retail merchant has to contend, is the advertising question. It has come to be known that the success of a retail business is largely a matter of advertising, but everything that is painted or printed is not advertising. Still, a great many people have an idea that it is, and the promoters of enterprises think that every merchant should be willing to buy space in anything that comes along.

The truth is, there are very few profitable ways of advertising, and anything else which the merchant contributes in the name of advertising is a gratuitous donation. If a merchant desires to make a donation to a cause, that is all right; but it is all wrong to attempt to hold him up in the name of advertising by asking him to spend his money in a medium that doesn't have an advertising value.

This statement is made through no prejudice of the paper. Millions and millions of dollars are expended every year to prove the truthfulness of the statement. Some of the brightest minds in the country are engaged in the advertising business, and are studying the question from a scientific standpoint. So that the theory of advertising has been pretty well worked out.

The best conclusions are to the effect that only permanent publications give an advertising value; that the occasional publications do not; that the publication which is bought and paid for has a greater advertising value than one given away or thrown about promiscuously. So well established is the latter fact that many of the big advertisers of the country will not advertise at any price in the publication that is distributed gratuitously.

PANEL OF BUILDING MATERIAL READY FOR FIRE TEST AT THE FIRE UNDERWRITERS LABORATORIES, CHICAGO.

Washington, D. C., June 21.—The United States Geological Survey has just made public an interesting report of their investigations bearing upon the fire losses in the United States during the year 1907. According to this report the enormous sum of $215,084,709 was lost to the government by fire in 1907. This amount does not include the loss due to forest fires. The loss on buildings was $109,166,894, and on contents $105,927,815. In addition to this financial loss, 1,449 persons lost their lives in fires that year and 5,634 were injured.

In order to ascertain the best fire-proof material to be used in future construction of public buildings and to lessen the ultimate loss to the government, Richard L. Humphreys, engineer in charge of the Structural materials laboratory of the National Board of Fire Underwriters in Chicago, Large panels of building material were constructed as they would be in a building and run into a gas oven, where they were subject to intense heat. After remaining for fixed periods the panels were withdrawn and a hose played upon them. These conditions were estimated to be such as would obtain at a fire. Other tests of a similar nature were made, and it is the opinion of experts that the information thus obtained will be a great aid to the government in the future construction of fire-proof buildings.

A SUMMER FRIEND.

- With the approach of warm weather, when man's best friend is the citrus fruit, these suggestions are especially interesting. Following are 18 uses of a lemon:
1. Two or three slices of lemon in a cup of strong tea will cure a nervous headache.
 2. A tablespoonful of juice in a small cup of black coffee will relieve a bilious headache.
 3. The juice of half a lemon in a cup of hot water on awakening in the morning is an excellent liver corrective and successful substitute for cathartic and other alternative drugs.
 4. A dash of lemon juice in plain water makes a cleansing tooth wash, not only removing the tartar, but sweetening the breath.
 5. A lotion of lemon juice and rose water will remove tan and whiten the skin.
 6. Lemon juice with olive oil is far superior to vinegar for a salad dressing—equal parts used for blending.
 7. Lemon juice and loaf sugar is good for hoarseness.
 8. Outward application of the juice allays irritation caused by insect bites.
 9. If when boiling sage or rose tea a teaspoonful of lemon juice is added the kernels will be whiter and a delicate flavor imparted.
 10. An old-fashioned remedy for croup we remember is honey, alum and lemon juice.
 11. Salt and lemon juice will remove rust stains from white goods.
 12. After the juice is extracted the rind dipped in salt cleanses brass beautifully and conveniently.
 13. It also removes unsightly stains from the hands.
 14. For flavoring cookies lemon juice is unexcelled.
 15. After the pulp is removed the skins make dainty receptacles for serving salads, ices, etc.
 16. Tough meat can be made tender by adding a teaspoonful of lemon juice to the water in which it is boiled.

BEAUTIFUL ORGAN

Was Dedicated at the United Brethren Church Yesterday.

FINE ADDRESSES AT BOTH SESSIONS

And Crowd Present for Services Was a Very Large One.

A large crowd gathered at the First United Brethren church yesterday to take part in the service that dedicated the splendid new pipe organ recently installed in that edifice.

Mrs. Hickey Barris was the organist and choir director, and some excellent music, both vocal and instrumental was given during the day.

The principal speaker was Dr. H. H. Font, editor of the Otterbein Bible School literature, and he gave two very forceful and scholarly addresses, one at the morning service and the other at the afternoon service.

A. C. Siddall, A. M., conference superintendent, addressed the Sunday school pupils and also had charge of the communion service.

Miss Helen Badeau and Mr. Marion Vermillion were soloists for the two sessions, and sang some beautiful numbers.

Dr. Font took as his text for the morning service, a well-known verse from the Psalms, "Mount Zion, beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth."

He presented the church in the similitude of Mount Zion; her beauty; her strength and her ultimate triumph over all her enemies.

In the evening he talked brilliantly for an hour on the theme "What manner of Man is this, that even the winds and the seas obey him?"

He took this illustration of the power of Jesus Christ and skillfully adjusted it to every phase of human existence, into which the Divine man has entered.

Contrasted with other men who have been great in the eyes of the world at different periods of its history, how does Christ stand? Through all the ages He has triumphed over all enemies; He has conquered by love, where other mighty men have striven to conquer by the sword.

The beautiful organ, in honor of which this day was celebrated, was the center of all eyes. Handsomely colored, it occupied the front of the church, and its large array of pipes led to the roof of the building.

It has the keyboard attached directly to the pipes, and the player is seated just in front of the instrument. It has a sweet, clear, pure tone, and one of the most beautiful things about it all is the fact that it is almost entirely paid for.

The cost of the organ, which was purchased of A. J. Shantz & Co., together with the amount of the installation amounted to just $2,700.

Of this amount $2,452 had been raised in cash before the morning service yesterday. The offering then was so great that but a small sum remains unpaid, and it is expected that this will be cleared tomorrow evening at the recital.

A program for the latter will be published tomorrow afternoon, giving both organ and vocal numbers that will be rendered.

THE IDLER

Hon. W. I. Finney, chairman of the state democratic committee who broke down physically from overwork, has recovered his health after a sojourn in Atlantic City and is back at his desk in Columbus.

The 1910 meeting of the National Children's Home society will be held in Columbus.

A woman who has been teaching mathematics in a New York school for ten years is believed to have worked out a problem propounded by Fermat, a famous French mathematician 200 years ago and which has never before been solved. As a consequence she is likely to receive the money reward offered by the will of a professor in Darmstadt university, but the Academy of Sciences of Göttingen is permitted, by the terms of the bequest to hold back the prize for two years, in the course of which period of time the New York teacher's demonstration will be passed upon by the leading mathematicians of the world. This is the theorem: "The sum of the sixth powers of two positive integers can not be an nth power for any value of n except 2. Can be something more than 'handy with figures' to be able to dash off a solution to this proposition.

Hon. C. D. Crites, wife and son Clarence, returned yesterday from their trip with the bankers of Ohio to "Socon." They report a splendid time, with enough storm thrown in to relieve it of the slightest charge of monotony.

Had the pleasure this morning of seeing a hand bill that was printed in advance of the celebration of St. John's day celebration by Lima Masons, June 24th, 1850, and it revived many memories of early times in this city. It called for the meeting of the Blue Lodge in Saint's hall. Col. James R. Cunningham, a strong early day character, was designated as marshal, with W. B. Hutchins and Wm. L. Reese as his assistants. The music was to be furnished by Sax Horn band; the oration by J. L. Kellum. The committee having the event in charge consisted of Eli Boud, Daniel Swally, A. N. Smith, Henry Reel and H. W. Stevens. The general public was invited to take part in the parade.

W. E. Rudy, J. O. Ohler, Mack Alt-schul and Willard Ohler returned last night from witnessing the Cobe auto races at Crown Point, Friday and Saturday.

George B. Donavin, Grand Master of Exchequer for the Grand Lodge of Pythias of Ohio in writing Hon. C. D. Crites, of the First National bank, to make early arrangements for the disbursement of $14,000 to the delegates to the 1910 convention which will be held in this city, closes his letter with this paragraph: "Will you kindly extend my sincere personal regards to Walter and tell him that I cannot refrain from again and again expressing my congratulations and admiration because of the fine and delicate manner in which he secured the Grand Lodge for Lima in 1910 almost before the Grand Lodge met at Dayton. The punch was good and the beans were pretty but after all it was Walter's fine Italian hand that did the work and the people of Lima should know it. I sincerely prophesy a fine time at Lima next year."

The above specified amount and thousands more will be put back in circulation by as fine a set of fellows as ever visited the city, and our people can well afford to make the K. of P. coming the occasion for dispensing the best entertainment and hospitality in her power to give. It also attests the popularity of Hon. W. B. Ritchie and his ever willingness and ability to boost Lima.

Rev. Father A. J. Schwerthner left this morning for Toledo, where he will deliver the commencement address to the graduating class of St. John's College this evening.

The St. Marys Leader gives the following account of a social journey extended to the prospective bride of Joseph Lehmkuhl: "A party of girl friends of Miss Francis Spidel, numbering twenty, met at the home of Miss Margaret Kirsch, Thursday night, and gave a miscellaneous shower in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Spidel and Mr. Joseph Lehmkuhl, of Lima. "The lady of honor was the recipient of many pretty and useful gifts. An excellent luncheon was served."

THE MIRACLE OF POLITE PERSISTENCY.

(Orison Swett Marden.)

When genius has failed in what it attempted, and talent says impossible; when every other faculty gives up; when tactics and diplomacy has failed; when logic and argument and influence and "pulls" have all done their best and retired from the field, gritty persistency, bulldog tenacity, steps in, and by sheer force of holding on, wins, gets the order, closes the contract, does the impossible. Ah, what miracles tenacity of purpose has performed!
The last to leave the field, the last to turn back, it persists when all other forces have surrendered and sunk. It has won many a battle even after hope has left the field.

Confederate commanders in the Civil War said that the trouble with General Grant was that "he never knew when he was beaten." When Grant's generals thought that his army, with only two transports, would be trapped at Vicksburg, they asked him how he expected to get his men out, urging that in case of defeat he could get only a small part of his army upon two transports.
He told them that two would be plenty for all the men that he would have left when he surrendered.

It is the man in the business world who will not surrender, who will not take no for an answer, and who stands his ground with such savagery of manner, such politeness, that you cannot take offense, cannot turn him down, that gets the order; that closes the contract; that gets the subscription; that gets the credit or the loan.

He is a very fortunate man who combines a gracious manner, suavity, cordiality, cheerfulness, with that dogged persistency which never gives up.

A FESTERING SORE HEAD.

In Sunday morning's issue of the Republican-Gazette the following excessive bit of ignorance and malevolence found its way through the editorial page:

"Major Becker continues to prey on the frail creatures on the tender-loins. Yesterday he levied another $50 on them. It looks like compounding a felony. Some people could call it blackmail."

By "some people," the editor evidently refers to the few people in Lima who possess as little intelligence as he does.

We wonder whether his marvelous (?) intellect, by long and diligent application would be able to define a "felony."

For the benefit of his readers, we suggest that he print the definition exactly as his thuy and malicious mind has it mapped out, in order to relieve himself of the present well established charge of ignorance.

As the case now stands the unquestionably has taken the meaning of the word "felony" from a felon on the word—a festering sore that might in his case interfere with reaching out after graft.

Indeed, he seems to have about the same infinitesimal brain in handling this subject, as he exhibits when discussing paving contracts and electric lighting.

The emperor of Japan will confer the Order of the Rising Sun upon President Taft, of New York college, which should offer excellent advertising possibilities to the manufacturers of a certain well known brand of stove-polish.

A portion of a lamb's leg has been successfully grafted on Earl Townsend of Chicago, and it would not be at all surprising if Mr. Townsend should experience a longing to roam about Wall Street in the near future.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her.

Williamette, Conn.—"For five years
I suffered untold agony from female troubles, causing backache, irregularities, dizziness and nervous prostration. It was impossible for me to walk upstairs without stopping without stopping on the way. I tried three different doctors and each told me something different. I received no benefit from any of them, but seemed to suffer more. The last doctor said nothing would restore my health. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to see what it would do, and I am restored to my natural health."—Mrs. ETTA DONOVAN, Box 299, Williamette, Conn.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from disordered menstruation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, in-regularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial.
Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

Pre-Inventory Sale

Now is the Time to Save Money on Clothing.

Every season—just at this time—we make preparations for inventory and in order to close out odd sizes, and broken lots, we cut down the prices to one-half the regular price, and if there is a single thing you need in clothing, hats, or shoes, now is the time to buy it. A special good feature about this sale is the Credit Privilege. Notwithstanding the low prices we sell the goods for during this sale we give you the privilege to have it charged or apply to the old account. Remember, Credit costs nothing at our store. Our prices are marked in plain figures. One price to every body—whether cash or credit. We simply offer these special inducements, so as to make it easier for you to buy your outfit, as we want you to be one of our customers and we are sure after once opening an account with us, we will also have all your friends trade. Another thing we would like to have you bear in mind, that we guarantee every garment purchased from us, and if anything goes wrong with it we make it right, and this is something no other store will do. Below are some price suggestions:

JAPANESE UNREST
IN HAWAII.

Hardly had we ceased to read of the present visit of the Japanese fleet to our western seaboard when word comes from Hawaii that the Japanese there are conspiring "to wrest control of the island's affairs from the whites." According to cable dispatches from Honolulu the climax of a great strike of 8,000 Japanese sugar plantation laborers has been reached by the arrest of 17 leaders who are being held on a charge of conspiring to overthrow the government. An official search of the offices of the Japanese society and its newspaper is said to have resulted in the seizure of papers tending to show the existence of an insurrectionary plot.

We are inclined to await further details before forming any judgment. As the Japanese in Hawaii do not vote, it is difficult to understand just how they could "wrest control" from the whites except by war. And war in the Hawaiian islands would be a Japanese revolt on American soil.

Few Americans realize that we have an oriental colony under the American flag. Hawaii is nothing short of that. In a total population of 170,000 at least 95,000 are orientals. Deducting the Chinese, many of whom are among the best "American citizens," and the Koreans, there are at least 72,000 Japanese in the islands and an extraordinarily large percentage of them are men who served in the Russo-Japanese and the Chinese-Japanese wars and landed in Hawaii on Russian boats captured in the war, and in their old military uniforms. The total American population of the islands is not today over 12,000.
The other part of the population is composed of Hawaiians, south sea islanders, and the Portuguese and Azorean laborers that practically have no cast even as a race and are generally not even classed as whites.

The male Japanese, who number over 60,000, easily constitute not only the most vigorous industrial element in the islands, but also the greatest military possibility. They are held together by ties that are closer than those of labor unions, aggressive clanishness more than

The case of the state of Ohio vs. Christian Geiger came to trial at 10 o'clock Monday afternoon, with Judge Mathers occupying the bench. The state is represented by Prosecutors Attorney Ben F. Welty, Assistant Prosecutor H. E. O'Connor and Attorney Joe Cooper, of Toledo. Mr. Cooper was counsel for John Henderson, James Martin and Thomas Dillon, the three prisoners now serving time in the penitentiary after pleading guilty to grand larceny in connection with the Yoakum case. Mr. Cooper has aided the state materially since his clients entered their plea in setting out the complete explanation of the Yoakum case, and the three prisoners will be brought to the city during the present trial to give their testimony. Mr. Geiger is represented by Attorneys Armstrong and Armstrong.

The indictment contains three counts, the first charging the defendant with breaking and entering the inhabited dwelling of James Yoakum, in Shawnee township, on January 10, 1909, with intent to steal $700 and of stealing the same. The second count charges the defendant jointly with John W. Beam of abetting and procuring John Henderson, James Martin and Thomas Dillon to commit the burglary and larceny and the third charges him jointly with Beam of entering into a conspiracy with the three prisoners to commit the deed. While Beam was jointly indicted with Geiger in the above charge, he has since been indicted for murder in the first degree which case takes precedence over all others, and Geiger is being tried alone.

The work of securing a jury was begun promptly and no challenges for cause were made. The state made two peremptory challenges, and the places were promptly filled. The defense took advantage of this privilege in three cases, and the evidence will probably be started before adjournment is taken this afternoon.

It is rumored that the evidence in possession of the state in the Yoakum case will read like a novel, and it has been demonstrated in the surprising arrest of Geiger and Beam more surprises may be expected in the future.

It is probable that Henderson, Martin and Dillon will arrive in the city Tuesday morning, and be permitted to testify in time that they may be returned to the penitentiary the same evening.

Mr. Geiger has stoutly maintained his innocence in this matter and the outcome of the case will be watched with interest by the public.

Braderick Case.

For the third time, the case of J. L. Braderick against the East Iron and Machine company was placed in the hands of the jury at four o'clock Monday afternoon. The plaintiff seeks to recover $20,000 damages for the loss of the sight of both eyes, which he alleges was caused by a defective cupola in the plant of the defendant company, where he was employed, at the time of the accident. The defense maintained that the matter was not due to negligence, but due to an electrical storm which was raging at the time. In the first trial the jury returned a judgment for $7,000, and a motion for new trial was sustained. In the recent trial, the jury failed to agree.

The county commissioners viewed the Litz ditch in Marion township Monday afternoon.

Now we are pricing them below the manufacturer's cost to produce. We cannot keep on giving bargains like these, we cannot sell more shoes than the F. B. There was a big stock of these shoes, $20,000 worth, about one half of these have been sold, but good assortment yet remains. Haste is necessary if you would share in these last unequalled prices. Odd lots and badly broken lines have been re-assembled in special bargain lots and on special bargain tables; prices of these are about one-half the usual price. The values are truly wonderful. EDGEWATER PARK,

Popular Resort Operated by Lima Parties.

Rivalling any other summer resort place in Ohio, because the electric cars take you right through the park, is that woodland and water paradise appropriately named Edgewater park.

People in search of vacation pleasures find the cottages, costed fitted up for all available purposes, and unlike so many of the widely advertised resort places there is real shade in close proximity to the water. The grounds have been prettily laid off with flower beds, the grass cut and the park will be made attractive in all ways.

There never has been a season when the Grand Reservoir merits the descriptive phrase "grand" to the extent it does this summer. The big lake is magnificent to the eye and never looked more attractive. If you would view the Grand Reservoir at night, go visit it by the pale moonlight" wrote Sir Walter Scott of the romantic Scottish ruins.

If you would view the Grand Reservoir at night, go visit it by the pale moonlight, but a walk or drive along its banks, or a sail over its rippling surface reveals to the eye one of the most beautiful lakes in all Ohio.

The Grand Reservoir stretches away from Celina a magnificent expanse of water 17,000 acres in extent. The water is so high that no where, save along Smoky Row and the west bank in town, is there a single unsightly feature anywhere in sight.

Boats of many kinds ply on its surface, the fishing has been phenomenally good this season and the reservoir is attaining new prestige, and new prominence right along.

The work of completing the west wall is being delayed by the high waters. It would seem, however, that the work of back filling might go right along and no time be wasted while waiting for the waters to recede. The west wall is a notable improvement and it suggests that entire west bank with a very little effort and energy, now that it has been denuded of so many of its trees, can be made the most beautiful boulevard, or driveway, anywhere in the United States.

Our people are beginning to awaken to scenic beauties of our magnificent lake, and while other cities spend thousands and thousands of dollars to build artificial lakes of small areas for purposes of pleasure and landscape beautification, Celina has at hand a significant reservoir, ten miles in extent, all ready and requiring but little from man save that he will no longer deface its banks with abominations with which the noble lake has hitherto been degraded.—Celina Standard.

Edgewater Park is the property of Messrs. T. R. Hamilton and G. F. Whitney, of this city, who have made extensive improvements this season, and expect to make it one of the most attractive summer resorts in this section of the country.

Summer coughs and colds are obstinate and difficult to cure. The most prompt method is to take something pleasant which will gently move the bowels; a good laxative cough syrup. Bees Laxative Cough Syrup will surely and promptly cure your cold. Sold by Red Cross Drug Store.

(By Geo. H. Van Fleet.)
Marion, O. June 21.—The greatest ninth inning finish ever seen on the local ball field was made by Marion in the opening game of the series with Lima, Sunday, and what looked to be certain defeat for the Diggers was turned into victory in this frame. Never was a wilder crowd gathered on a ball field in the league than that of Sunday after the locals had an excellent chance to win. When the winning run crossed the plate, fans flew in the air and the majority of the crowd surged out on the field shouting with delight and shaking the hands of the players, while the remainder stood in the stand and on the bleachers giving vent to their feelings of joy.

Although the odds were strong against the Diggers when the final frame roared around, the locals did not give up. When the winning run crossed the plate, fans flew in the air and the majority of the crowd surged out on the field shouting with delight and shaking the hands of the players, while the remainder stood in the stand and on the bleachers giving vent to their feelings of joy.

It was a contest in which pretty catches and stops were numerous, while there were a couple of chances on the local side that had a slight touch of yellow, but the players with whom these things came up for their slowness in other ways. Manager Lewis and Captain Farrell got together in the ninth when the rally started and they used some judgment that would make many big ring managers turn green with envy. Their presence was particularly noticeable to the most of the crowd of 1500 fans who credit to them a big portion of the victory.

Parsons, who last season wore a Lima uniform, was on the hill for the Diggers. Although he was battered hard he did well to keep the hits scattered as he did and several of the drives were of the scratch order and should have been out. Eleven bingles were secured by the Cigarmakers while three were walked and an equal number got on by being hit. Except in one case of two fast work on the part of Willoughby and a little slow work on the part of Parsons, the game was a close one.

seventh when Sykes hit Fohl, but Fohl fielded the ball for a home run, scoring four who got a life by being hit. Not until the eighth did the locals have a chance of scoring and it was then that they got a start. Williams opened with a double to right center and took third on Staley's out. Reilly was hit and Zunch hit safe to left, scoring Williams. Lucas drew a pass and with the bases full, Parsons turned out to Reilly who caught our own Reilly by a pretty throw to the plate.

Not a man was retired in the ninth when the locals scored four runs and won the game. Kaler, but Staley, the first batter up, and showed signs of weakening by passing Reilly. Zunch hit safe to left, Staley going home from second while Reilly was held at the middle station. Johnstone was sent in to bat for Lucas and showed that he was a pinch hitter by planting one safe in right. With three runs needed, the bases full and no outs, Parsons was called on to deliver the blow to win his own game. He hit one over third which the umpire called foul, but being a close call, and causing all of the runners to advance. After being called back to the plate to try again, Parsons clouted the leather on a line over third, the ball taking a bad bound past Reilly and emptying the bases. It was all that was needed for victory and to cheer one of the largest crowds that has assembled at the park.

Abbott hustled hard to have the run but it was no use and the game was lost for Newark on a very easy although McClintock singled after one was down.

Justus is Some Pitcher.
Lancaster, O. June 21.—"Iron Man" Justus pitched both games against Portsmouth yesterday and won them. Both should have been shut-outs but for bad judgment on a drive by McKernan. Portsmouth's three hits in the second game came in one inning. Justus fanned three batters in the last game as a final act in pitched balls. A delegation of 75 from Portsmouth came up to see the games. Score: First game—Lancaster 8, Portsmouth 0. Batteries—Justus and Williams; Critchton and Doran. Second game—Lancaster 3, Portsmouth 2. Batteries—Justus and Williams; Holmquist and Doran.

Two Shut Outs.
Newark, O. June 21.—Newark and Mansfield both worked a shut-out game yesterday afternoon before a big crowd. O'Hara's misjudgment of Davis' drive lost the first game. Mock allowed but two clean hits. Score: First game—Newark 0, Mansfield 0. Batteries—Stoup and Johns; Bucholz and Redman. Second game—Newark 0, Mansfield 0. Batteries—Bock and Piper; Hughes and Redman and Breymer.

AL. G. SPAULDING Learned National Game During the War.

The first time in his life that Al G. Spaulding, the millionaire sporting goods man, who once was a great professional pitcher, ever heard of the national game was in 1863. Then as a youngster of 13, he met a soldier at his home in Illinois, who explained to him how they played a game in the army called baseball. Young Spaulding became interested and had the soldier show him all the points in this game. After he had mastered them he formed two teams from among the boys in the neighborhood and soon the whole community was head over heels in the game. Four years after his meeting with the soldier Spaulding was clerking in a Chicago grocery store. Baseball had a tremendous hold on the people there and Sunday games were a feature. So in company with some other lads of his age he went out to the game between two leading teams. The pitcher of one of the contesting clubs twisted his leg early in the game, and some one, knowing Spaulding's proficiency, recommended the boy as being a good pitcher. He filled the bill to the letter, holding down the great slugger with apparent ease. All Chicago spoke of him next day as the "boy wonder," and he was given a contract to sign which called for $4 a week, which was a big salary in those days.

Benefit Exhibition Was Well

Cause.

The Lima White Sox defeated the champion Commercial Travelers' baseball team at the College grounds Saturday afternoon in a fast and interesting contest. The game was played as a benefit exhibition, the gate receipts to go to the folk of 1210 west High street, who lost one leg through an attack of white swelling, and desired to procure an artificial limb. The net receipts of the game will reach about $75, which will prove of material assistance.

The Travelers started things to booming in the first innings, scoring three runs with clean hits, after two were out. They landed another tally in the second with Merl Sealts' double, a stolen base and a wild throw by the Sox catcher. The Sox got busy in their half of the third and scored two runs on a pass and two singles. There was nothing doing in the fourth inning, but in the fifth the Sox were busy again and Ashton drove a pass which was followed by two singles and a double, piling up three runs. In the sixth the Sox added another to their credit, which ended in their run getting. The Travelers failed to score after the second inning until the eighth when the managed to squeeze another one across the pan, but failed to overcome the lead of their opponents.

NEW MANAGER Signed by Directors of the Marion Club.

Marion, O. June 21.—President O. Wollenweber of the Marion club Friday received word from Chas. Shields of Elizabethtown, N. J., stating that he has accepted terms with Marion and will come on at once. Shields has been playing a great game at second base in the Atlantic league and his coming will help the Diggers wonderfully. Former Manager C. M. O'Day will leave for Sioux City, Iowa, having accepted terms with that club to play second base and captain the team. He was given his unconditional release by the local club.

MANAGER CHANCE Out of the Game for Several Weeks.

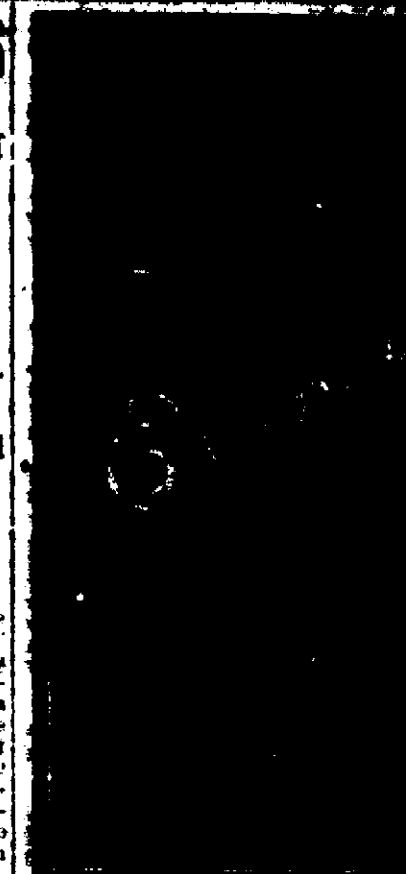

Manager Frank Chance, of the Cubs, has had to have his injured shoulder put back in a cast again, and he will be out of the game for a long time. He worked out a little the other day and discovered that the fracture had not mended properly. It is even possible that the bone will have to be wired down, which will mean his absence from the game for a month or so. Chance is disgusted with this latest development, as he had hoped to be back in active service by the end of this week.

TENTH Grand American Handicap Tournament.

Chicago, June 21.—"Practice" started today at the traps of the Chicago club near West Palmer and marked the opening of the tenth grand American handicap tournament. While the big event of the meeting is not shot until Thursday, 400 marksmen are already on the grounds. Of these 405 have sent in entries to Secretary Shaner of the Interstate Association which will be in charge of the present tourney.

THE COST OF GOVERNMENT.

Astorian has figured out that the cost of national, state, municipal, county and township government in this country is about $6,000,000 a day. Is it worth it. Six cents a day for an individual is little enough to pay for liberty and all the other blessings which we enjoy.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

ALL DUE TO THE COMET.

Strange things have been happening of late in this usually staid old world of ours. There have been earthquakes, cyclones, typhoons, forest fires, shipwrecks, volcanic eruptions and unusual electrical storms. The cause of all this was left in doubt until Edwin P. Nauty, an expert astronomer, who has as good a reputation for veracity as any astronomer can have and draw his salary regularly, informed the world that a stray comet which is out on its own reconnaissance is switching its fiery tail about certain portions of our globe and is exerting a weird influence over the earth. He uses this to explain all the unusual happenings of late.

This comet is an interloper and came to us without the formality of an invitation. It is a very nervous and restless comet and apparently doesn't know how to act in good society. Just the other day it switched its tail over France and gave France a smack of 15,000,000 tons. Marine compasses are all out of kilter and the needles are just as apt to point to Zion City as to the North Pole. In fact the comet has just naturally upset all calculations and there is where its presence is apt to be taken an unfair advantage of by numerous and sundry individuals who are in urgent need of a good excuse. When anything goes awry they can lay it to the comet and thus answer all questions and settle all doubts in one breath.

The gentleman who wanders from his lodge at 4 o'clock in the morning will need only to say, "It's all on account of the comet, you know, n'dar. The comet is out tonight." The gentleman who has a bill due can explain everything to the collector by murmuring sadly, "Now if it wasn't for the comet I would be able to pay that today. The comet is going to leave us this month. Come around in July." The man whose forty horsepower Panhard sprays a leak when he has a party aboard or sinks into a mud hole can make everything perfectly clear to his guests by saying, "That that dog-gone comet." The office boy who fails to report for work in the afternoon will be able to square himself next morning by saying, "I tried to get here yesterday afternoon, but that comet dragged me right out to the ball park before I let go." And the senate's peculiar course regarding the tariff? There has been no reasonable explanation, but now it is all clear as crystal. Again the comet!—Grand Rapids Press.

HOW TO KEEP THE STAGE CLEAN.

President Taft is entitled to the thanks of people who believe in keeping the stage decent for a good example which he set in his final Washington theatre in the midst of a performance, because he considered the play indecent. Senator Knox and Senator Crane had left the same play earlier in the week, but had not commended their action to the president.

The only fault that can possibly be found with this rebuke was that everybody concerned was too polite about it. The president did not wish to disturb the actors on the stage, so he left at the end of the act, and the audience did not discover the reason for his action, as it would have done had he gone out as soon as the play had reached the end of the act. The care of the performance was marred by a high degree of forbearance and consideration, but these fine qualities were not deserved by the management which had put on such a play, nor by the actors who appeared in it. A more emphatic and more considerable rebuke would have been the play for the rest of its life, and on engagement and sent it home to the country branded so effectively as to end its power for mischief.

Of course, such a rebuke from a president carries more emphasis than it would to from a private citizen, but private citizens can do so. They can refuse to have their names prominently featured in the same play as they choose. When a considerable number of auditors leave a New York first night in the middle of the performance because the play is so bad, that play is dead. We have lost the habit of leaving houses and plays are indecent. Just as we have lost the habit of hissing. The passing of hissing is a good thing, because the practice tended to disturb the audience. The theatre has such objection lies against a withdrawal of plain would put an end to the orgy of indecency which has broken out on the New York stage. This winter, and which the Washington play seems to have been a good deal to continue and spread. There has been little need until now of such a public rebuke of a president, but the occasion having arisen, President Taft deserves the thanks of good citizens for having pointed out a simple and entirely effective remedy. His example should be followed.—Brooklyn Eagle.

WEALTHY POETS.

(TID BITE.)
That poetry is not so hard, and after all is proved by Mr. W. W. Charles Swinburn's will, the estate of which was recently valued in London. His estate was valued by the so-called executor, Mr. Charles Watts-Dunton, at $1,292,300, including, among other things, the net value of £19,996. The value of the property has been left to Mr. Watts-Dunton.

Tennyson left £57,208. He appointed his son his literary executor, and bequeathed to him all his manuscripts, literary works and royalties, subject to the payment of the same to the Tennyson family. The copyrights of late Poet Laureate's works were valuable, and Tennyson was paid by the publishers handsome sums for his poems.

Robert Browning, of whom "A. Tennyson" and "F. T. Palgrave" were the attesting witnesses, was personally in England of the value of £16,775. The will was in Browning's own handwriting, with the final letters of all the nouns substantive in capitals, after the old style. Victor Hugo, who, like Lord Byron, attained the age of 83 years, had personal estate in the country of the amount of £92,126. Dr. Charles Mackay's property was valued at £24,030, and that of Eliza Cook at £3,957.

Matthew Arnold's estate amounted to £1,041. His will, in his own handwriting, was one of the shortest that have ever come under probate. It was, "I leave everything of which I die possessed to my wife, Frances Lucy." Mr. Frederick Locker-Lampson left £20,119. Mr. Charles Palmer left £8,777, and Mr. William Morris, who died in 1896, £500,000. In the last named case, however, it is tolerably certain that poetry did not contribute a very large share of the total.

$352,707.00 DEPOSITED AT FIVE PERCENT.

Safe, Secure, Convenient For Savings and Deposits.

Nine years ago The Lima Home & Savings Association began paying 5 per cent for deposits in any amount with privilege of compound interest. On account of the safe and secure manner in which such deposits have been handled, many people of large and small means, have accepted the very liberal opportunity of having their funds invested at a rate that is worth while, until nearly $353,000 have accumulated earning 5 per cent. These deposits are used by this association only for loans on city and farm homes in Lima and vicinity. Nothing but first mortgages are taken to secure these loans; ample insurance is required for the Association's protection as well as frequent reduction of principal.

Another feature of safety is the annual examination by the state authority to which this Association is subjected. The last examination was completed on the 20th of May, 1909, and included an investigation of all of the Association's investments and securities.

All persons with money to lay out at the liberal rate this Association has been paying for many years, who are seeking a place where safety, security and convenience, are in every transaction of its business, are invited to its office in the Masonic building, west of the postoffice, Lima, Ohio.

DECEASED BROTHERS

Remembered by Knights of Pythias With Solemn Service Sunday.

SPRIG OF MYRTLE DROPPED BY EACH

Living Member as a Slight Remembrance to Those Gone Before.

Despite the fact that the program arranged for the memorial service of Lima Lodge No. 91, Knights of Pythias could not be carried out as arranged the service was a beautiful and a very impressive one to all those who witnessed it.

The members of the order met at Castle hall promptly at one-thirty and went to Woodlawn in a body, holding the service just within the entrance gates close by the G. A. R. monument. A mixed quartet including Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ebersole, Mrs. McClure and Mr. O. N. Young sang the opening hymn, and Dr. J. J. Miller made the invocation.

Owing to the absence of Hon. W. B. Ritchie from the city the memorial address was made by Mr. Brigham S. Young, of Ada, past grand chancellor, who paid an eloquent tribute to the dead, and also to the living members of the fraternal order whose great principles are Friendship, Charity and Benevolence.

Mr. Young is a very able speaker, and he talked for an hour to a deeply interested group of listeners, the main theme of his address being the fitting observance of a day set apart to the memory of the deceased knights, and the allegiance the living members owed to them.

The speaker also touched on the foundation of the order, and gave a short sketch of the man who organized the first lodge, Justice H. Rathbone, who in the troublous times of the early sixties inaugurated the first lodge with some famous men as members.

Another selection by the quartet, with the closing prayer given by Brother S. B. Douglas closed the program, and the members then divided into two squads for the decorating of the graves. Mr. John Thomas and Mr. Chester Reynolds were in command, and the work done at the graves was very beautiful. Each squad marched two abreast until they came to mound, where they counter-marched in such a manner that they formed a triangle around the mound. The commander then read the name of the deceased and a member walked forward and placed the spray of carnations provided on the grave, then following by two each man placed his sprig of myrtle on the grave as a remembrance for the departed.

The graves visited and the members remembered by their surviving comrades were Frank Willower, John Wagers, G. Kell, H. Gould, E. E. Mowen, Alf Ceas, Joseph Hoyer, E. Edmund, Wm. Price, Frank H. Crall, Chas. Johnson, Otto F. Kemmer, Geo. Roth, Ed. Swartout, Thomas Morris, J. E. Ritchie, J. B. Payton, J. C. Ridenour, Horace Nelson, Allen Ireland, Henry Hadwell, Christian Putscher, Tony Putscher, E. Provost, C. Miller, James Harley, W. E. Clark, J. E. Mell, R. W. Stephens, Joseph Shull, Hector F. Shull, J. J. Miller, D. D. Morris, C. H. Adgate, C. B. Adgate, John Phillips, Frank Schwab, and Harry Martin.

THE STOCK MARKET.

Many are the things expected of the stock market which it never does. The country is always strewn with speculative wrecks caused by the belief that shares must inevitably go up on good news or down on bad news. Various are the ways in which the stocker can disappoint fond hopes, there is none more hazardous than betting that stock will continue to rise because economic and financial conditions seem to assure larger earnings and larger values than when they were lower last week, or last month, or last year. And by the same token, there is scarcely anything so sure in speculative guessing as that if things are seemingly good, the stock market is already calculating and waiting for the bad. The stock market soldiers who have been through several wars have not departed from the almost single rule that they follow—to keep ahead of the best as well as of the worst. They have continued to put up the market because of the very fact that prosperity, delayed by the tariff uncertainty and the other uncertainties depend upon it, has not yet swung around the circle. The good things of production, industry, trade, house building and savings are still to come. When they arrive in full measure—well, some of the stocks and bonds bought low down by the four weather optimists will have been handed over high up to the fair weather optimists scrambling frantically to get them.—New York Press.

THE GIFT FOR THE NEEDY.

An eccentric California millionaire who was married in New York this week made his bride several magnificent presents and a conspicuous article on the list was a talking machine. It was the finest of all, and it was the only one of its kind in the neighborhood. It cost $15,000. It runs something like an eight day clock and will talk continuously, if so desired, upon almost any subject under the sun. This one particular gift proves three things: That the bridegroom is liberal, that he was a bachelor and that he is an optimist of the thirty-third degree.

Of course there are certain advantages in having a good, loud talking machine about the place. I may be used to infuse a little variety into the bridge conversation. When wife asks him why he leaves his shoes out on the front porch and sends the stairs in his stocking feet (as he simply rise, cross the room to the $15,000 talking machine, deftly switch on Ingersoll's oration on "The Tomb of Napoleon," and change the subject of discourse, losing himself and his helpmate for the nonce in marvellous eloquence. When the nursery in the domestic thermometer drops and telesees appear on the coal stove a good jolly tune on the $15,000 phonograph, say, "There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight." "I'd Rather Be Than Than Waltz, Bill," might serve to start a temperate war, and in the situation without the application of someone foot warmer or mustard plasters.

Still, even with the advantages mentioned, it must be said that any man who gives his wife a talking machine is taking chances, as most of our better halves have well developed talking machines of their own which require no winding, oiling or new records.—Grand Rapids Press.

TWO SUSPECTS ARRESTED FOR THE MURDER ELSIE SIGEL

THE MARKETS.

New York, June 21.—The opening transactions for the week in stocks were small and thinly distributed throughout the list. The Northwestern Trans-Continental, including the Hill roads and St. Paul and New York Central rose substantially. There were no other significant changes. Small gains and losses being mixed.

The market closed unsettled and weak. The Harriman stocks were heavily affected by rumors of a sudden seizure of E. H. Harriman by Vienna. There was no official authority for these rumors and associates of Mr. Harriman protested that they were not informed of any such happenings. Union Pacific dropped 3/4 and both Southern Pacific stocks 3/4. The whole market was violently affected, losses ranging from 2 to 3 1/2 points in Reading, Missouri Pacific, Ontario and Western, U. S. Steel, Am. Iron & Steel, Anaconda, American Cotton Oil and a number of others.

Chicago, June 21.—The wheat market was strong on the opening today, and showed small gains. Several leading commission houses were moderately active bidders. The bears, however, became more aggressive early in the day and sold quite freely on favorable crop reports which resulted in a loss of all the early gains. July, which opened at $1.13 1/4 to $1.13 1/2, advanced to $1.15 1/4 to $1.15 1/2, and then declined to $1.13 1/4.

Receipts of corn were less than expected. July opened 1/4 to 1/2 to 3/4 higher at 71 1/2 to 71 3/4, and sold at 71 1/2.

Selling of the September delivery had a weakening effect on the oats market. July opened unchanged, sold off to 56 1/2.

Provisions were weak on general selling based on an increase in live hogs at the western packing centers. Prices at the start were a shade higher to 12c lower, compared with the previous closing.

NEWSBOYS ADVICE TO AUTHOR.

William Dana Orcutt, author of one of the season's "best sellers," "The Spell," exchanged a few words the other day with a boy who runs the news stand at one of the largest of the New York hotels. Mr. Orcutt, a guest at the hotel while stopping in New York, went to claim two theater tickets reserved at the stand in his name.

"Are you William Dana Orcutt?" demanded the custodian. "So you wrote this here, 'The Spell,' did you?" pointing to the book.

"I did," admitted Mr. Orcutt. "What's the matter with it? Can't you sell it?"

"On, sure; it goes all right," said the youthful vender, generously, "but say you fellows don't none of ye know how to sell a book."

MANY KNIGHTS WERE GATHERED IN K. OF C. COUNCIL HALL SUNDAY

Class Initiated Included Men from Three Different Towns.

THREE DEGREES WERE PUT ON

By Visiting Delegations from Delphos, Wapak and E. Liverpool.

More than a hundred visitors were in the city yesterday in attendance at the great joint initiation ceremonies, held in the halls of Lima Council, when 35 candidates from this city; 24 from Delphos Council and four from Wapakoneta Council were initiated with all due ceremony into the membership of this prominent order of the Catholic church.

The guests arrived in the early morning so that they could attend the exercises from the beginning of the program, which opened with the knights attending nine o'clock mass at St. Rose church in a body. Rev. A. E. Manning, chaplain of the order, read the mass, but on account of illness was unable to preach his usual sermon. Appropriate music by the large choir under the direction of James Weadock, was rendered, and at the close of Mass "Holy God" was sung by the entire body of knights.

Work in the first, second and third degree was put on. Wapakoneta Council with a fine team giving the first degree work, followed by Delphos Council in the second and Hon. Thomas J. Duffy, state deputy, with his staff from East Liverpool, gave the final degree work.

Mr. Duffy's assistants were Mr. Grant Boehr, of Canton Council, and Mr. Robert Waldeck, of Gilmore Council, Cleveland, together with Dr. Thos. P. Hart, of Cleveland and Attorney Chas. Carey, of Cleveland.

The committee of Lima Council including Messrs. Walter M. Cooney, E. J. O'Connell, A. C. Feltz, Harry Pfum and A. J. Altenbaugh, had made such complete arrangements and had provided so admirably for their guests that there was no confusion during the entire program for the day.

The work was all completed at the time designated, shortly before six-thirty, and candidates, and members were served a very excellent buffet lunch by Henry Steinhil of the White Cafe, in the club rooms of Lima Council.

At seven-thirty the party adjourned to the council hall where Hon. Thos. J. Mulligan presided as toastmaster, and where a very brilliant program was given.

Mr. Mulligan gave each speaker a clever little introduction and the first one introduced was Benjamin Haverbeck, who sang one of his best selections which was warmly welcomed by the audience.

Then followed a series of talks by prominent knights, one running into another in natural sequence, and giving the principles of the order and the work which it strives to do.

The first of these talks was given by Rev. George Lang, pastor of St. Johns church of Delphos, who had for his topic "The Ideal Knight." Rev. Lang strongly emphasized the cultivation of the qualities of mind and heart that go toward making the ideal man as well as the ideal knight. Such a course on the part of the individual would greatly strengthen the order as a whole, and make its work nobler and more lasting.

Following the same line of thought Hon. C. A. Stueve, of Wapakoneta, spoke on the topic "Our Country," and showed how the striving to become an ideal knight would in turn make an ideal citizen, and to incur lasting benefit to the country in which the Knights of Columbus are recognized as a strong order.

The fact that Rev. Manning was indisposed made it necessary to transfer his scheduled topic of "True Knighthood" to some other speaker. Dr. Thomas P. Hart, editor of the Catholic Telegraph, and the man who made such a splendid address before the local knights some weeks ago, and who is also a past state deputy, was kind enough to take the subject and handled it very fluently.

Rev. A. J. Schwertner, pastor of St. Johns church this city, spoke warmly on the subject of "The Need of Catholic Unity" and he made it particularly impressive that no great work could be done unless each individual worked for the good of the whole and the old maxim "In unity there is strength" he said contained a mine of wisdom, and the Catholics who forgot personal prejudices and personal likes and dislikes for the good of their church were the ones who were making it a recognized power.

Hon. Thomas J. Duffy, of East Liverpool, spoke on the general theme of "Our Order" and he made some very strong points in his eloquent tribute to the order and its principal leaders. The cardinal virtues of unity, charity and brotherly love which are the axioms of the foundation of the knights were extolled by the speaker in glowing terms.

The entire day passed most pleasantly, and among those to whom credit is due in addition to the committee in charge is Grand Knight Charles J. Dimond of the Lima Council, Grand Knight Dr. G. S. Weger of the Delphos council, and efficient corps of assistant officials while to Hon. T. J. Mulligan, lecturer of the Lima Council, and the clever toastmaster of the day, much credit is also due.

Among the noted visitors of the day were Dr. Hart, of Cincinnati; Dr. J. W. Costello, district deputy of Sidney, and others, while visitors were entertained from Terre Haute, Ind.; Bowling Green, St. Marys, Wapakoneta, Delphos and East Liverpool.

HEALTHY BABY BOY Left on Doorstep at Residence of S. Brown Douglass.

INFANT TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

Juvenile Judge Will Endeavor to Find Suitable Home.

Harry Douglas, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Brown Douglas, of 207 south Pierce street, was much surprised when he returned home Saturday evening about 11 o'clock to find a healthy baby boy about two months of age, lying upon the door step, wrapped in a heavy blanket. A suit case was left beside the infant, which contained a full wardrobe of infant's clothes, and two bottles of milk. Captain Wingate was notified at police headquarters of the find, and detailed Sergeant Armstrong on the case, who transferred the little fellow to the city hospital, where he will be taken care of until a home is found for him.

Through the entire period of discovery and transfer, the babe enjoyed its innocent sleep.

It appears that some heartless mother has deserted the infant and left it to the care of the public. Juvenile Judge Hutchinson will endeavor to find a suitable home for the little fellow, if no trace of the parents can be found. The judge has a number of applications for babies on file, and will undoubtedly be able to procure a home within a day or two.

BUNDLE OF BINGS Occupied Attention of Fire Laddies.

The fire laddies were kept busy Sunday with a bundle of bings. At 9:35 o'clock Sunday morning an alarm from box 48 called the department to the home of Frank Men 405 east Second street, where the roof had caught fire from the galvanized pipe chimney. The flames were extinguished with but little damage.

An alarm from box 45 called their attention to the Frank Bishop house, 1034 Reece avenue. The head of a lighted match flew into a lace curtain and started a fire that looked dangerous, but the prompt action of the department disposed of the same without serious damage.

An alarm from box 49 at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon called the laddies to the west end of the Lake Erie and Western shop yards. The employees were engaged in burning up some old box cars, and the flames spread into a pile of lumber. Although it was a long and hard run, the laddies made quick time and prevented much loss.

At the midnight hour Sunday an alarm from box 41 called them to the home of Frank Gardner, 736 south Central avenue. A gas jet burning too close to the wall, caused flames to burn throughout the palstering and run up to the attic. Beyond a small hole in the roof there was no damage.
